DORADOS COACHES:

MARTY HAMMOND

Head Coach, Director of Football Operations

Hammond is in his second season as Head Coach of the Dorados. He coached the team to a 7-9 season in his rookie campaign and comes to the team after serving as the Offensive Coordinator/Receivers Coach for Tennessee Valley from 2003-04 and receivers coach in 2002. He played wide receiver at the University of West Alabama from 1992-95 and was a teammate of former Dorados coach Kevin Guy. Hammond graduated in 1996 with a degree in computer science. As a freshman, he was named the Gulf Coast Conference Rookie of the Year after catching 39 passes for 339 and two touchdowns. A native of Lexington, Ala., he was an All-State pick and MVP for Lexington High School. Hammond is familiar with the Dorados, having served as a training camp coach for the Dorados during the 2005 preseason. In 1998 he served as an Assistant Coach at Spanish River High School in Boca Raton, Fla., then moved on as an Assistant Offensive Coordinator at Santaluces High School in Lantana, Fla., in 1999.

CORY STONE

Asst. Head Coach, Co-Defensive Coordinator, Player Personnel

Stone, a Memphis native, played at the University of Tennessee (UT) and lettered in 1993 and 1994 for the Volunteers as a defensive tackle. Stone played eight years in the Arena Football League, beginning in 1996 and ending in 2005 with the Philadelphia Soul. Stone was a starter for a New York Dragons that holds the record for the most points (99) ever scored in an Arena Football League Game. Stone started his coaching career in 2006 with the Bakersfield Blitz of af2. He helped coach the Blitz to their best season ever and helped lead the team to their first playoff victory ever. Stone coached the 2006 AF2 linemen on the year Jerry Turner. The Blitz were the only team in 2006 that had three players ranked in the top 10 for sacks, and tackles for losses, while the defensive line finished second in total sacks (42). Coach Stone also helped coach a Blitz team that finished the 2006 af2 season ranked number one in total defense.

KELLY SNELL

Defensive Backs Coach

Snell enters his second season as a coach with the Dorados after a successful playing career at the college and pro level. He won a Grey Cup with the CFL's B.C. Lions in 2000 and was a member of the AFL champion Grand Rapids Rampage in 2001. As a senior at Ferris State he was named one of ESPN's top 100 college players. As a sophomore in 1996 he was a first team All American and was a second team All American as a junior. The native of White Cloud, Michigan, won the af2 Defensive Player of the Year with 15 INT's in 2002 with Tennessee Valley. His playing career also included stints with the Detroit Fury & Georgia Force (AFL) and Florida Firecats (af2).

FRANK FRANZ

Asst. to the Offensive Coordinator/Strength & Conditioning

Franz returns to the Dorados for his third season. Franz attended McMurry University in Abilene where he excelled in football as an All-Conference quarterback and graduated with a BS in Education in 1998. In the spring of 1999, he began work at Texas State University as a Strength and Conditioning Coach and earned a Masters Degree in Exercise Science from Texas State in 2000. While there, Frank was responsible for designing and implementing strength and conditioning program for a variety of men's and women's NCAA Division I sports. During his time as a strength coach he helped to produce three NFL draft picks, a 1st round NBA selection, a 1st round MLB selection, and a National Championship Cheerleading Squad. In the fall of 2002 he began work as a varsity Football and Track Coach at Sharyland High School and helped guide the football team to a District Championship. Frank is currently the Director of Strength and Conditioning at Elite Performance in McAllen.

FLORIDA REMAINS ON TOP IN WEEK 2 COACHES POLL

CHICAGO – The Florida Firecats received 435 points and 19 first place votes to remain in first place in the Week 2 Coaches Poll, the arenafootball2 (af2) league office announced today. The high-powered Firecats defeated the Oklahoma City Yard Dawgz in front of their home crowd this past weekend, 55-22, to solidify their claim to the top spot for the second straight week.

The Spokane Shock toppled the Stockton Lightning 51-35 in Week 1, remaining in second place with 407 points, including 6 first place votes. The Quad Cities Steamwheelers rumbled into the third spot after rolling over the Cincinnati Jungle Kats 81-21. Quad Cities totaled 384 points and received 5 first place votes. Despite a dominating 61-30 performance against the Everett Hawks, the Tulsa Talons slipped one spot to fourth. Last year's ArenaCup runner-up Green Bay Blizzard fell from their Week 1 fifth position all the way out of the coach's poll after a 36-28 loss to the expansion Fort Wayne Fusion. The Oklahoma City Yard Dawgz, Louisville Fire, and Arkansas Twisters all fell out of the top 12 after Week 1 losses. The Central Valley Coyotes—along with the expansion Boise Burn and Fort Wayne Fusion—all earned spots in the top 10 after solid week 1 showings.

Each week during the season af2 coaches will vote for the Top 16 teams in the league by ranking them one through 16 on a ballot. Teams ranked first receive 16 points with the point value decreasing by one for each place below first, meaning a team ranked 16th would receive one point. Total points will determine the Top 16 list. In the event of a tie in total points, the team with the greater number of first-place votes will be ranked higher. The af2 Coaches Poll will be announced every Wednesday during the regular season. Coaches are not allowed to vote for their own team and the poll results have no bearing on postseason qualification.

The complete Top 16 is listed below. The number in parentheses indicates the number of first place votes the team received.
